

National Chiayi University College of Agriculture

Regulations of Clean Race

Passed by college directors at the fourth meeting of school year 98, on Jan. 7, 2010

- Rule 1. National Chiayi University college of agriculture (later mentioned as the college), has decided to hold the clean race of National Chiayi University college of agriculture (later mentioned as the race), in order to maintain campus cleanliness and tidiness, promote physical and mental health of instructors and students, cultivate the hardworking, pragmatic, and enthusiastic serving spirits of students.
- Rule 2. The scoring subject of the race is limited to the departments and institutes belonging to the college, the objects of the scoring are the cleaning and beautifying of the inner and outer environments of related buildings.
- Rule 3. The cleaning and tidying of the departments and institutes belonging to the college, can be processed with student's physical labor and other related classes, to cultivate good life habits, team cooperation, and solidarity.
- Rule 4. The race is hold without a fixed schedule (can be processed with school anniversary, graduate ceremony, before the New Year or school cleaning day, and so on), the college will announce and inform belonging departments and institutes before scoring.
- Rule 5. The race has established a scoring team, the dean of the college will serve as the convener, the rest of the members will be occupied be each department's manager or a recommended full-time teacher; the scoring team should visit each belonging departments and institutes to score.

- Rule 6. The subjects that are scored excellent, will be awarded bonus by the college, first place NT 10,000 dollars, second place NT 7,000 dollars, third place NT 4,000 dollars, only when there is a lack of funds, will the amount of bonus be appropriately reduced.
- Rule 7. Each department of the college is allowed to set regulations of clean race separately.
- Rule 8. The regulations were passed at the conference of college directors, put into practice after the principal approved.