

The curriculum and Instruction for the Vocational Home Economics Education 家政群科教材教法

Instructor: Shih. Shing- Shing (phone # )

2 Credits/ 2 hours per week for Undergraduate Year students

Course Description:

This course that involves a multi- sequence of courses that integrates core academic knowledge with home economics careers and occupational knowledge to prepare students to become vocational Home Economics high school teachers. Topics will include the curriculum concept, supported by appropriate instruction and assessment, appropriate classroom management and motivational strategies for behavioral modification in vocational Home Economics education. Opportunities for classroom teaching experiences with live teaching in the vocational Home Economics high school

Course Objectives:

1. Display skills necessary to create and evaluate home economics education curriculum and instruction
2. Recognize contemporary home economics education concepts and models used by various home economics education programs.
3. Recognize preschool health appraisal techniques and procedures.
4. Display the skills to formulate and apply learning concepts.