

幼兒英語圖書的欣賞與教學應用 Classroom Applications of Picture Books in English

This course is one of the elective courses offered in the sophomore year. English young children's literature (Pre-K-Grade 2) and its classroom applications will be introduced. Important issues and theories related to English teaching and learning in early childhood classrooms will also be discussed.

The successful course participant will demonstrate:

1. better English language skills;
2. awareness of the theoretical perspectives regarding foreign language learning;
3. awareness of the central role that children's literature plays in literacy programs;
4. knowledge of instructional strategies for teaching English;
5. ability to select appropriate English picture books and generate lesson plans for young children.