

National Chiayi University, Department of History and Geography

Academic Development Committee set up points

89 years on Nov. 6 by the appropriate department

First, the Department for the pursuit of academic development, we established a Committee on Academic Development (hereinafter referred to as the Committee).

Second, the Committee by the faculty three (or more) composition, and select one as a convener, members of the term of one year.

Third, the work of the Committee as follows:

1. Planning domestic and international academic exchanges.
2. Planning the academic activities of the department.
3. Preparation of the department of research and plan
4. Chukan matters for academic publications.
5. The execution of department meetings related matters.

Fourth, the Committee held a meeting at least once each semester, additional meetings when deemed necessary.

Fifth, the Committee convened to half (or more) members may only attend the opening meeting, the meeting of the resolution to more than half the members present agreed to become established.

Sixth, the main points by the Department faculty meeting, President Chen invited implemented after approval of their revisions.