

Unit Introduction

The principal business line accounts for all school property, membership of the build and management. Includes movable and immovable property management services, such as increased property, reduce or transaction account management board, the other for school heads, the duties and dependents dormitory management, space management, and consumption of goods requisitioned management, loan management and guest houses, places serving a number of business management.