

Course: History of Taiwanese Literature      Credit: 2      Hours: 2      Required

Class: 中文二

Instructor: Wu ying-Jing

I. Course Objectives:

Students are able to study local literature and culture besides Chinese literature. It is because literatures come from the contact between land and people. To be familiar with the change of local literature will increase identification and belonging toward the land.

II. Teaching methods and performance assessment: A lesson, among a group discussion.

Evaluation: the absence of 20%, 40% midterm, final exam 40%.