

Course: Selected Readings and Composition in Chinese Ts'u

Credit: 2 Hours: 2 Required

Class: 三年級甲班

Instructor: Kuo Chuan-Yu

Class hour: Wednesday 5-8

Classroom: 人文館 J212

E-mail: kuocy@mail.ncyu.edu.tw

I. Course Description:

1. The word is unique, because it does not like song and does not like poetry. At first we will introduce the name and origin and characteristics. And then we will introduce the system, syntax, meter, with rhyme, poetry, words, and song of the comparison of word knowledge.
2. Selected works are famous poetries and songs. Those works we are going to read are list by time. In this course we will analyze their style, skills, and characteristics. And then we will do comparison with other works for students to be familiar with those works.
- 3 Meanwhile, students need to read more for knowing the state and development in those works.
4. Reading great works helps students to sense the state of literature works. However, to avoid student feel limited by reading few works multiple kinds of songs will be selected in this course.
5. This course will introduce report methodology and instructor will guide students to do report.