The curriculum framework of NCYU Department of Counseling Master Degree

1. Professional Courses for Graduate Institute【10 credits for necessary】
Research on Educational Research Methods, Advanced Educational Statistics and Research paper.

2. The Department of Counseling Master Degree are departed into Department Family Education and Department of Counseling.

A. Department of Family Education

1. Department of Family Education has 28 credits for necessary.

Obligatory
Seminar in Family Education (2 credits)
Basis Elective
Seminar in Human Development and Learning (2 credits)
Seminar in Family Sociology (2 credits)
Seminar in Family Theories (2 credits)
Seminar in Family Ecology (2 credits)
Seminar in Family Development (2 credits)
Seminar in Family Communication and Family Relationships (2 credits)
Seminar in Ethics of Helping Profession (2 credits)
Group Dynamics and Group Work (2 credits)
Professional Elective
Seminar in Sex Education for Family (2 credits)
Family Education and Social Resources (2 credits)
Seminar in Parent Education (2 credits)
Development and Design on Family Education Program (2 credits)
Seminar in Family Resource Management and Education (2 credits)
Intervention for Marriage and Family (2 credits)
Martial Relationships and Marriage Education (2 credits)
Seminar in Atypical Family (2 credits)
Theory and Practice of Family Mediation (2 credits)
Family Education Program Planning and Evaluation (2 credits)
Seminar in Family Education Policy and Administration (2 credits)
Practicum in Family Education (2 credits)
Needs and Services in Family Education for Minorities (2 credits)

B. Department of Counseling