

Educational Measurement and Evaluation

The purposes of this course based on the required readings, class discussions, and real practices, will help students be able:

1. to realize the theory and practice of measurement and evaluation in education,
2. to understand how to assemble and appraise classroom tests and assessments,
3. to edit an applicable math test by individual self.